Adelstein Mandolin Musicale

The music-loving people will turn out en masse on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., to the mandolin musicale to be given by Prof. Adelstein at the Opera House. He will be assisted by Miss Kate McGrew, who will sing "For all Eternity," by Mascaroni, with mandolin obligato by Prof. Adelstein; Mrs. W. I. Warner, contralto; Mr. W. H. Hoogs, tenor; Miss Nettie Burhans, pianiste; Miss M. Paty, violin; Mr. Geo. Paris, flute; and Mr. Wray Taylor, cello. There will be songs with mandolin and lute obligatos and several concerted numbers, that have never been heard in Honolulu. As the mandolin and lute are new to us and Prof. Adelstein is one of the leading artists of America on these instruments, our musical people will have the pleasure of listening to a program filled with many novel and interesting numbers. Seats will be on sale to-morrow at the office of L. J. Levey.

Must be a Toady.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In the Advertiser of June 30 appeared a letter signed, "A Britisher who Likes Fair Play," wherein the writer extols Mr. Hatch for refusing permission to H. B. M.'s Minister. Major Woodhouse, to land the British troops for drill. It is evident this "Britisher" must be in the Government service, or he would never have slobbered over Mr. Hatch, and by doing so, made him appear like a mosquito as compared to a lion. True Britons uphold the course of their Minister and so down Downing street, regardless of what Mr. Hatch and his half-hearted British toady may think, say or threaten. The "Fair Play Britisher" reminds us of the British post (1798), who wrote thus:

"True patriots we, for he it understood, We left our country, for our country's good."

RUNNYMEDE.

Teacher: "What is the meaning of the word 'contiguous'?" Pupil: "Dunno." Teacher: "It means 'touching.' Give an example of a sentence containing the word." Pupil (after a prolonged mental struggle): "The Habs in the Wood is a very contiguous story."

JUDICIAL JOTTINGS

Right of Way Decision—Aldrich Gets a Setback.

The Supreme Court by Justice Bickerton has rendered a unanimous opinion on the case of Wm. Henry vs. L. Ahlo. It is an appeal from the Commissioner of Private Ways for the District of Koolau, Oahu. The defendant owns a kuleana in Kaneohe, to reach the Government road from which he had to cross a lot of crown land owned by defendant. He was refused a right of way to the road by defendant, but the Commissioner ordered that the right of way be given. From this order defendant appealed. The Court dismisses the appeal and orders a road ten feet wide opened from the land of plaintiff to the public road, with a gate to be maintained by defendant at the junction of the roads. "Where a kuleana is granted within crown land," the syllabus declares, "the owner of the kuleana has a right of way by necessity from it to the nearest Government road." J. A. Magoon for plaintiff; W. C. Achi for defendant.

Judge Whiting has ordered the will of J. H. Lovejoy admitted to probate and that letters testamentary issue to Juliette C. Lovejoy and Samuel C. Dwight under $5000 bond. W. Foster for the petitioners.

The same Judge has ordered the will of Louisa N. Armstrong admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary issue to James Armstrong under $500 bond. J. K. Kahookano for the petitioner.

J. A. Magoon has filed his account as administrator of the estate of Mariano Camacho, asking to be allowed $916.30 and charging himself with $1713.23, and petitioned for final order of distribution. Bruce Cartwright and H. E. McIntyre, executors of the will of Dr. Trousseau, have been instructed by Judge Whiting that they have power to sell certain articles of depreciated property, and advised to sell the following articles: groceries and wines, instruments, drugs, carriage house, and sundries, books, boat house property, and stocks. Executors appeared in person.

The Supreme Court by Justice Frear has rendered a unanimous opinion on the application of W. H. Aldrich for a writ of certiorari against the First Judge of the First Circuit Court. The writ is ordered to be dissolved, the petitioner to pay costs. The syllabus of decision is as follows:

"Circuit Judges have jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari. The breach of such writ is a contempt of Court, even if the petition shows upon its face that the case is not a proper one for the issuance of the writ."

"This Court will not, in determining upon certiorari the validity of proceedings brought against a party for such contempt, consider the merits of the case upon its merits."

C. W. Ashford for petitioner; A. S. Hartwell contra.

Catarth in the Head

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood, and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect and permanent cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarth. Catarth often times leads to consumption. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla before it is too late.

Hood's Pills do not purge, pain or gripe, but act promptly, easily and efficiently. 25c.

In the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Hawaiian Islands.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE of C. H. H. MABLE, C. and HELENE E. NEWTON, Minors.

On reading and filing the Petition of C. H. H. MABLE, the guardian of the persons and property of C. H. H. MABLE, C. and HELENE E. NEWTON, minors, praying for an order of sale of certain real estate belonging to her said ward, the same being a portion of the land owned by C. H. H. MABLE, C. and HELENE E. NEWTON, situate at Kalahele, Niihau, Honolulu, Oahu, said minors having an undivided one-half interest therein and setting forth certain legal reasons why such real estate should be sold to-wit: that it would be to the benefit of said wards to sell such land and reinvest the proceeds.

It is hereby ordered, that the next day of the said ward and all persons interested in the said estate, appear before the Court on MONDAY, the 23rd day of July, A. D. 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Court Room of this Court, in Honolulu, Oahu, there to show cause why an order should not be granted for the sale of such estate.

Dated Honolulu, June 30, 1894. By the Court, GEORGE LUCAS, Clerk.

The scheme to run a line of steamers from Tacoma to Yokohama, making Honolulu a stopping point is gradually taking shape. Tacoma is now, and has been for several years, the shipping point for a vast amount of products of North Western Washington. Railroads from points east of the mountains connect the great wheat producing district of Walla Walla Valley with tide water and the promoters of the new line anticipate a large business in Washington products between these points. We understand the Canadian and Australian line gets this business now by means of a transport between Tacoma and Vancouver, and the idea of the Great Northern is to secure the business without the extra handling of freight. Washington is a great state, rivaling Minnesota in the production of wheat and giving to the people of the northwest fruits more luscious than California can grow. If a line of steamers from Tacoma to Yokohama calling here could be made to pay it would certainly be a good thing for Hawaii. Every vessel that docks here means money to the merchants, the more vessels, the more money, and it is the same in any city with a harbor. Some years ago a city on Puget Sound got most of its business through the fact of its being the port of entry for the Sound. As time passed other towns sprung up and developed into cities of larger and stronger growth than the other, and they were in time made sub-ports of entry. From that time until today it has been a case of the "survival of the fittest."

The first town with its $300,000 custom house and glorious climate has sunk into insignificance; vessels which formerly entered and cleared there go further up Sound and the trade has gone with it. So it has been here on the Islands. Lahaina is to-day commercially dead; hundreds of people here can remember counting 200 vessels in the harbor at one time. Is money as plentiful in Honolulu as when the harbor was full of whalers? It is easy to note the change which have taken place since the days when the shipping at Lahaina was larger than it is today. It is as easy, then, to calculate the benefits to be derived from additional lines of steamers into Honolulu.

If there has ever been a better iron stove than the "Pansy" manufactured we've not heard of it. Hundreds of these stoves are in use here, and every one has given satisfaction. We have them in three sizes and keep getting them by every steamer. If you want a good baker that uses the minimum quantity of fuel you can do no better than to buy a "Pansy."

The "D. & D." polisher will succeed Sapolio just as the safety has succeeded the old time velocipede. We have tried this polisher for every purpose for which Sapolio is used and find it superior.

LUCOL

BEST

OIL!

The following testimonial has been received from a prominent plantation owner and manager:

HONOLULU, H. I., May 29, 1894. PACIFIC HARDWARE CO., Ltd., Honolulu.

Gentlemen:—You ask my opinion of Lucol as a Paint Oil.

I have experimented with Lucol Oil for outside and inside work, also on iron work, painting my vacuum pan, machinery and centrifugals, with it and the result has been most satisfactory. It dries harder, makes a better finish, goes further and is more satisfactory in every way than linseed oil.

Certain paint work which was always sticky with linseed oil dried hard when Lucol Oil was used.

Yours truly, AUG. DASTRA

Direction for Use.

Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment, than you would of linseed.

In using metallic, Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more Lucol, and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss.

NEVER USE JAPANESE

Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge oil, never use Japanese.

LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES and assists their working and improves their appearance. BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED CAREFULLY. THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the quality of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled.

The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of Lucol to varnishes does not reduce their lustre nor retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.
